

Sounds of SUMMER

concerts

On the last Sunday of the Summer months of May, June, July, August and September, Desert Palms invites in a special musician or musical group. The guest musician(s) are invited to play musical pieces during worship, and, 15 minutes after the conclusion of worship, the concert will begin. Each concert will include a free-will offering. Tickets for lunch must be purchased before the Wednesday preceding each concert.

The schedule for each concert is:

9:30 a.m. Worship

10:45 a.m. Concert

12:00 p.m. Luncheon

SEPTEMBER 29

DIXIELAND

Join Greg Varlotta, Dan Reed, and Nicole Pesce, three talented multi instrumentalists, in a concert like no other. You will be amazed watching each artist dazzle you on several different instruments with styles that include everything from jazz and Dixieland to jitterbug, waltzes, and boogie woogie. There may even be a special Polka in honor of Oktoberfest!

Greg Varlotta has performed with numerous symphony orchestras, brass quintets, jazz ensembles, and is the recipient of the prestigious Arion Trumpet Award. Dan Reed has become so popular in Arizona that after much persuasion and encouragement from many of Dan's fans, he recently started forming his own groups. Pianist, keyboardist, composer, and arranger, Nicole Pesce entertains audiences with a unique blend of virtuosity, humor and pizzazz.
